Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Restriction

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-36, drawn to a system of friction stir welding.

Group II, claims 37 and 40-46, drawn to the method of removing root defects.

The special technical feature of Group I is the tool having superabrasive material, as recited in Claim 1. The forgoing special technical feature is shown in the prior art of Nelson (WO 01/85385, see abstract and figures). Therefore, there is no contribution made over the prior art, hence there is no unity of invention and lack of unity is held by the Examiner.

IF APPLICANT ELECTS GROUP I, THEN APPLICANT MUST ADDITIONALLY

ELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Ia. Claims 2-9 are drawn to the selection of the nonplanar surface.

Ib. Claims 10-15 are drawn to the consumable material

Ic. Claim 16 is drawn to the stopping block.

Art Unit: 1725

Id. Claims 18-30 are drawn to the clamping system.

Ie. Claims 32-36 are drawn to the anvil.

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 17, 27, 31, 38, and 39.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The special technical feature of Group I is the tool having superabrasive material, as recited in Claim 1. The forgoing special technical feature is shown in the prior art of Nelson (WO 01/85385, see abstract and figures). Therefore, there is no contribution made over the prior art, hence there is no unity of invention and lack of unity is held by the Examiner.

IF APPLICANT ELECTS GROUP II, THEN APPLICANT MUST ADDITIONALLY

ELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

IIa. Claims 2-9 drawn to the selection of the nonplanar surface.

Art Unit: 1725

IIa. Claims 43-45 are drawn to extending partially outside the OD of the pipes.

IIb. Claim 46 is drawn to the ring does not extend outside the OD or ID of the pipes.

The following claim(s) are generic: 37 and 40-42.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The special technical feature of Group I is the tool having superabrasive material, as recited in Claim 1. The forgoing special technical feature is shown in the prior art of Nelson (WO 01/85385, see abstract and figures). Therefore, there is no contribution made over the prior art, hence there is no unity of invention and lack of unity is held by the Examiner.
